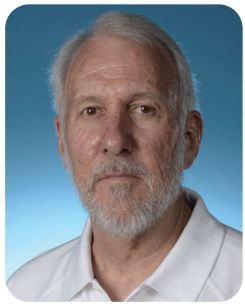
GREGG POPOVICH

HEAD COACH / PRESIDENT OF SPURS BASKETBALL



Gregg Popovich is in his 26th season as the Spurs head coach. He currently stands as the longest tenured active coach in all four U.S. major sports leagues. Popovich has led the Silver and Black to five NBA Championships (1999, 2003, 2005, 2007 and 2014) and is just one of five coaches in history with five-or-more NBA Championships (along with Phil Jackson, Red Auerbach, John Kundla and Pat Riley). On April 13, 2019, Popovich became the NBA's all-time leader in combined wins (regular season and playoffs) with his 1,413th career win. He ranks first all-time among NBA coaches for the most consecutive winning regular seasons with 23.

Popovich finished the 2020-21 season with an all-time regular season record of 1,310-653. His career winning percentage of .667 ranks fifth in NBA history (behind Jackson (.704) Billy Cunningham (.698) Steve Kerr (.687) and K.C. Jones (.674), min. 500 games). Popovich ranks third in NBA history in career regular season victories. On Feb. 4, 2017, he collected his 1,128th win as Spurs head coach to surpass Jerry Sloan for most wins with a single franchise in NBA history. His 170 playoff wins rank third in NBA history (behind Jackson and Riley).

Popovich was named NBA Coach of the Year in 2003, 2012 and 2014. He's led San Antonio to the NBA's best regular season record five times (1998-99, 2000-01, 2002-03, 2011-12 and 2013-14). He's also been named Western Conference All-Star coach four times and NBA Coach of the Month 17 times, the most in league history.

Internationally, Popovich served as head coach of the USA Basketball Senior Men's National Team from 2017-20 guiding Team USA to a gold medal at the 2020 Olympics. He has also served assistant coach for five USA Basketball national teams winning a one gold medal and one bronze medal.

Born in East Chicago, Ind., Popovich graduated from the United States Air Force Academy with a degree in Soviet studies in 1970. While there he played basketball for four seasons. As a senior he was named the team's captain and was their leading scorer averaging 14.3 points. In 2007, he was honored by the Air Force Academy with its Distinguished Graduate Award.

Following his graduation in 1970 Popovich served his five-year military commitment in the U.S. Air Force. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces Team. In 1972, he was selected captain of the Armed Forces Team, which won the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) championship. He was among 66 players invited by the U.S. Olympic Basketball Games Committee to try out for the 1972 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team.

Popovich returned in 1973 to the Air Force Academy and was head coach of the USAFA Prep School for three seasons (1973-76). He spent three seasons (1976-79) as an assistant at the U.S. Air Force Academy and he obtained a master's degree in physical education and sports sciences from the University of Denver.

In 1979 Popovich was named the head coach at Pomona-Pitzer in Claremont, Calif. where he would spend the next eight seasons. During the 1985–86 season he led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years and to a berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament. While at Pomona Popovich was an active member of the school's academic community, working as an associate professor, chairing the college's Student Life committee, serving on the Women's Commission and even – for one year – living in a dorm with his family.

In July of 1988 Popovich made the move to the NBA joining the Spurs as an assistant coach on Larry Brown's staff. He spent the next four seasons in San Antonio with a Spurs team that won a pair of Midwest Division titles. In the summer of 1992 he was named an assistant coach on Don Nelson's staff with Golden State.

After two seasons with Golden State, Popovich returned to the Spurs after being named general manager and Vice President of Basketball Operations on May 31, 1994. Midway through the 1996-97 season he took over as head coach.

Popovich is a very active member of the San Antonio community. In 1991 he teamed with Frank Martin to create the Spurs Youth Basketball League. Today the league plays at 75 locations in San Antonio and throughout South Texas. The league was honored with a Daily Point of Light Award by President George H.W. Bush in February of 1992. As the premier entertainment venue in South Texas, the AT&T Center opened in November of 2002. The AT&T Center was built by the initiatives of a public-private venture amongst Bexar County, the Coliseum Advisory Board, the San Antonio Livestock Show & Rodeo and Spurs Sports & Entertainment. The facility hosts anchor tenants: the NBA Spurs, the AHL Rampage and the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo. Additionally, the venue attracts a multitude of concerts, family shows and special events. In 19 years of operation, the AT&T Center has hosted over 2,000 events while entertaining in excess of 20 million guests. George Strait, the Rolling Stones, Bruno Mars, Justin Timberlake, Billy Joel & Elton John, Luciano Pavarotti, P!nk, Katy Perry, Bon Jovi, Garth Brooks and Harry Styles are just a few of the musical acts that have visited the AT&T Center. Other events include NCAA Basketball, Cirque de Soleil, WWE Hell in a Cell, Harlem Globetrotters and River City Rockfest.

In 2015 the AT&T Center underwent a $100+ million renovation to enhance the the fan experiences at all levels of the Bexar County-owned arena. Renovations to the AT&T Center included all new seating arena-wide, along with infrastructure and technology improvements. Technology enhancements to the AT&T Center were prevalent arena-wide with the installation of high definition televisions and LED signage throughout the arena. The addition of LED displays to the NE, SE and SW ticket towers give the exterior a striking new look and provide the ability to showcase game action, event highlights and promotional messaging. The centerpiece of the technology updates is the installation of a brand new center-hung video board that provides a state-of-the-art, high-definition display and has more than four times the viewable area of the previous board. A new audio system and improved Wi-Fi capabilities round out the technology enhancements that help elevate and create a more immersive fan experience. Infrastructure improvements included expanded and updated concourses, enhancements to the arena entrances and updates to all the suites. In addtion to the 2015 renovations, the AT&T Center is currently enhancing various parts of the arena, including an all-new season ticket headquarters, a wellness and sensory room and new dining options in the East Concourse on the Balcony level. Beginning in November 2018, guests at Spurs games, concerts, and special events will be treated to a unique experience that includes cuisine options from La Gloria and Burgerteca, a specialty bar, and seating options for patrons. A new wall-to-wall viewpoint overlooking the arena bowl and TVs throughout the space will ensure that fans won't miss a moment of the action.

The AT&T Center offers diverse events to the San Antonio community and all of South Texas thanks in part to its various seating capabilities, building configurations, curtaining system and technology upgrades. Configurations from an ice show, to basketball, to rodeo, to boxing, to theater can all be accomplished at the AT&T Center. The arena is proud to host community events throughout the year working with special partners such as SAISD, LSA, SBGB, North Chamber of Commerce, Bexar County local town halls and various military events.

The 11.4 turnover average also ranked second in the NBA in least amount of turnovers. San Antonio set a franchise record for games with 10 or less turnovers in a single season with 40, beating out the previous record of 34 during the 2008-09 season. The Silver and Black also ranked second in the league in opponent points off turnovers with 14.3.

NBA CARES COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD: Patty Mills received the February NBA Cares Community Assist Award in recognition of his continued efforts to create opportunities that empower Indigenous young people and advance social justice in his native Australia. The award honors the standard set by NBA Legend David Robinson, who improved the community piece by piece. Mills is the first player born outside of the US to win the award since teammate Gorgui Dieng (Senegal) in 2019.

2021 RISING STAR: Keldon Johnson is the first Spurs player to be selected for the Rising Stars Challenge since Jonathon Simmons in 2017 and is the first player to be selected in his second season after appearing in less than 20 games as a rookie since Clint Capela in 2016.Johnson becomes the ninth player in San Antonio franchise history to be selected to the Rising Stars since the event's inception in 1994.

TRIPLE-DOUBLE DJ: Dejounte Murray recorded four triple-doubles on the season. Only three players in franchise history have recorded 4+ triple-doubles in single season: Johnny Moore (5) 1984-85; David Robinson (4) 1993-94; Dejounte Murray (4) 2020-21. He was the first Spur to have multiple triple-doubles in the same season since David Robinson in 1993-94 (4). 20/5/5: DeMar DeRozan has recorded 53 games with 20+ points, 5+ rebounds and 5+ assists during his three seasons as a Spur. He has posted 18 of those games this year for the second most in a single season following his 2018-19 season (22). DeRozan is the first Spur to record 14 such games in a single season since Tony Parker recorded 13 in 2011-12. His 24 games with 10-plus assists ranks No. 9 in Spurs history trailing Mike Gale (25) and Johnny Dawkins (28) next on the list.

1000+ CLUB: Keldon Johnson reached 1,000 career points on 5/13, becoming the fifth-fastest Spur to score 1,000 points following David Robinson, Tim Duncan, Walter Berry and Willie Anderson. At 21 years old, he is also the third youngest Spur to reach the threshold: Tony Parker and Mark Olberding.

• There have only been 6 games (by 3 players) in NBA history where a player 6'5" or shorter has had 20+ points and 20+ rebounds. Johnson posts the 7th game and becomes the 4th player ever (Fat Lever (4), Russell Westbrook, Shai Gilgeous-Alexander) to accomplish the feat.

• He is the first Spurs to record 21 rebounds since Tim Duncan (12/2/13) and is the second-youngest Spurs to grab 21 boards (21 years, 159 days) since DeJuan Blair did so twice in 2010 (20 years, 266 days).

BLOCKOB: Jakob Poeltl ranks No. 13 in franchise history with 286 blocks and looks to jump No. 12 Kawhi Leonard (289) next on the list. He broke his single season-career high with 123 this year, becoming the 14th player in Spurs history to reach 100 blocks in a single season and the first Spur not named Tim Duncan with 120+ blocks since Rasho Nesterovich (2003-04).

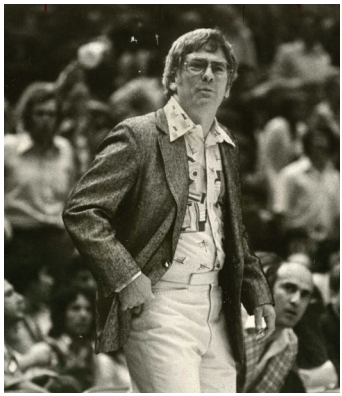
THE ABA YEARS

THE COACHES

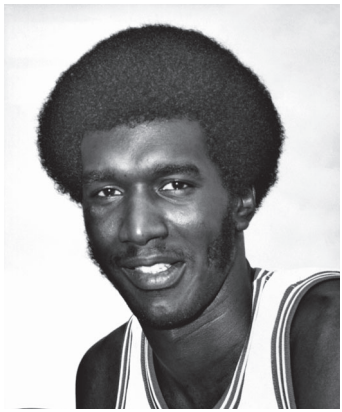


1967-69 - CLIFF HAGAN
1969-70 - CLIFF HAGAN & MAX WILLIAMS
1970-71 - MAX WILLIAMS & BILL BLAKELEY
1971-72 - TOM NISSALKE
1972-73 - BABE MCCARTHY & DAVE BROWN
1973-74 - TOM NISSALKE
1974-76 - BOB BASS

THE STARS

CLIFF HAGAN

FIRST PLAYER-COACH



Player-Coach Cliff Hagan was a big reason for the Chaparrals early success … he was a five-time All-Star with the St. Louis Hawks prior to arriving in Dallas … his physical style was perfect for the ABA and in his first season of 1967-68, Hagan averaged 18.2 points per game, leading to another All-Star selection. He was relieved of his coaching duties in January 1970, when General Manager Max Williams took over as head coach.

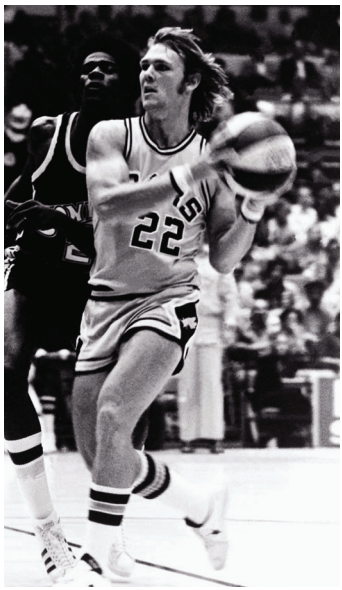
JOHN BEASLEY

1968, 1969 & 1970 ABA ALL-STAR

John Beasley was the biggest surprise for the Dallas Chaparrals in their inaugural season … in his first year, Beasley averaged 19.7 points per game … he made the ABA All-Star Team each of his first three seasons and was named the MVP of the 1969 All-Star Game … he also garnered All-ABA Second Team honors in 1968 and 1969 … Beasley ranks second in Spurs ABA history in games, points, field goals made and field goals attempted … for his career with the Chaparrals, Beasley averaged 17.9 points and 11.0 rebounds while shooting .494 from the field and .828 from the free throw line.

RON BOONE

1968-69 ABA ALL-ROOKIE FIRST TEAM



A major bright spot of the Chaparrals' 1968-69 season was rookie phenom Ron Boone … Boone attracted very little attention during his college career at Idaho State, but that all changed when he got to the pros … Boone finished second to Warren Armstrong of Oakland for Rookie of the Year accolades … in his rookie season, Boone averaged 18.9 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.6 assists while shooting .434 from the field and .812 from the free throw line.

GLEN COMBS

1970 ABA ALL-STAR

Glen Combs shined along with Boone during his rookie season … in 1968-69, Combs averaged 15.4 points per game while shooting .361 from three-point range … the following year, Combs averaged a team-high 22.2 points in addition to 3.4 rebounds and 4.1 assists … he made one All-Star appearance as a Chaparral in 1970.

CINCINNATUS POWELL

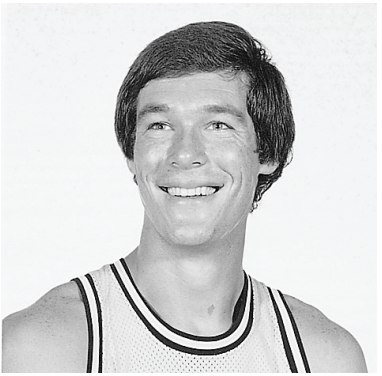
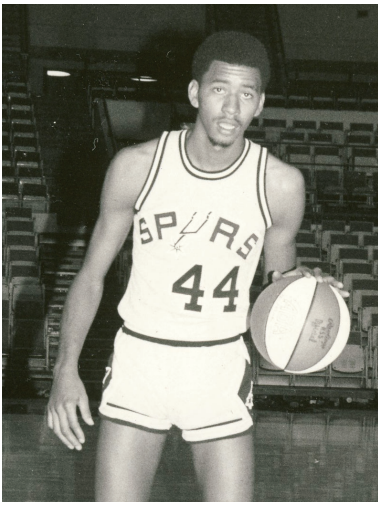
Cincinnatus 'Cincy' Powell averaged 19.3 points, 9.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists, while shooting .476 from the field during his time in Dallas … Powell was named to the 1967-68 All-ABA Second Team … he also earned one trip to the All-Star Game in 1970.



RICH JONES

1973 & 1974 ABA ALL-STAR

For his career with the Chaparrals/Spurs, which spanned six seasons (1969-75), Rich Jones averaged 16.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and 3.1 assists, while shooting .430 from the field and .318 from three-point range … Jones is the Spurs all-time ABA leader in games, points, field goals made and field goals attempted … he also ranks second in free throws made and attempted, rebounds and assists … Jones was a two-time All-Star in 1973 and 1974.



SWEN NATER

1974 ABA ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

The first big move in Spurs history paid dividends from the start … in November, 1973 the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virgina Squires in exchange for draft picks and cash … Nater appeared in 62 games with San Antonio after playing in 17 games with the Squires during the 1973-74 season … for the season he totaled 79 games, averaging 14.1 points and 12.6 rebounds while shooting .552 from the field … in addition to winning ABA Rookie of the Year honors, Nater was named to the All-ABA Second Team, appeared in the 1974 ABA All-Star Game and led the league in field goal percentage.

GEORGE GERVIN

1974, 1975 & 1976 ABA ALL-STAR

During his ABA years with the Spurs, George Gervin made three consecutive All-Star appearances from 1974-76 … he also was a two-time All-ABA Second Team member for the 1974-75 and 1975-76 seasons … Gervin's best ABA season with the Spurs came in 1974-75 when he averaged 23.4 points and 8.3 rebounds … for his ABA career with the Spurs, which spanned three seasons (1073-76), Gervin averaged 22.2 points, 7.6 rebounds and 2.4 assists, while shooting .484 from the field and .844 from the free throw line.

JAMES SILAS

1976 ALL-ABA FIRST TEAM

James Silas enjoyed the best season of his 10-year career during the 1975-76 season … he appeared in all 84 games, averaging 23.8 points, 5.4 assists, 4.0 rebounds and 1.85 steals in 37.0 minutes per contest … Silas was the first Spur to be named to the All-ABA First Team and also earned a spot on the 1976 ABA All-Star Team.

THE BIG STORIES

THE BEGINNING
February 2, 1967

On February 2, 1967, a Dallas ABA franchise is awarded for $30,000 to August Speth, Gary Davidson, John Klug, James Peters … the team is sold prior to the league's first season to a group including Robert S. Folsom, J. Lindsay Embrey, Richard Bruton, Joseph W. Geary, Graham R. E. Koch and Lawrence S. Pollock … Folsom was named President … Max Williams was named General Manager … the team played in Memorial Auditorium and Moody Coliseum … Cliff Hagan ended his one-year retirement to become the team's player-coach … they drafted Pat Riley (who signed with San Diego of the NBA) … they signed John Beasley, Charlie Beasley, Cincy Powell, Maurice McHartley, and Bob Verga.

"DALLAS" BECOMES "TEXAS"
1970-71 Season

For the 1970-71 season, Chaparrals management tried its greatest experiment – regionalization … the name of the team was changed to the "Texas" Chaparrals … while Texas still played most of its games in Dallas, the team also played in Lubbock and Fort Worth … this experiment fizzled in a dramatic way … while the crowds in Dallas remained strong, attendance in Fort Worth and Lubbock steadily declined over the season … the breaking point came on January 5, 1971, when less than 200 fans showed up in Forth Worth to see the Chaps play the Pittsburgh Condors (the crowd was actually announced as 500) … management promptly canceled the last five games scheduled for Fort Worth and switched them to Dallas.

FIRST NBA-ABA EXHIBITION GAME
September 21, 1971

In the summer of 1971, a merger between the NBA and ABA appeared imminent … Basketball Weekly reported that "The American basketball public is clamoring for a merger. So are the NBA and ABA owners, the two commissioners and every college coach. The war is over. The Armistice will be signed soon" … in this short-lived congenial atmosphere, the two leagues agreed to play preseason interleague exhibition games for the first time … even though the merger talks fell apart before the 1971-72 season, the ABA vs. NBA exhibition games stayed alive … the Chaparrals hosted the first NBA vs. ABA game on September 21, 1971 … Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored 32 points to lead the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks past John Beasley and the ABA Dallas Chaparrals, 106-103 … 7,800 fans paid the largest gate in Dallas franchise history to see the game.

CHAPARRALS MOVE SOUTH
Summer of 1973

When the Dallas Chaparrals first moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973, the franchise was actually on a three-year lease … shortly after the 1972-73 season ended a group of San Antonio businessmen - led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Angelo Drossos and Art Burdick negotiated the unique deal … the first ownership group consisted of 35 stockholders … the team struggled to gain interest early said treasurer Maury Holden, "I can remember one night, Pat Tallman (the Spurs PA announcer) said it might be easier to introduce the people in the crowd instead of the starting line-ups." … as the season went on the support grew … during the season the group of 27 investors arranged to purchase the team from the Dallas group and by the end of the season – after the team had acquired Swen Nater and George Gervin – Spurs fever had arrived in San Antonio.

SPURS FIRST GAME
October 10, 1973

In the first game in San Antonio history, the Silver and Black fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena in front of 5,879 fans … the starting lineup that night was Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas … the Conquistadors were coached by NBA legend Wilt Chamberlain … Chamberlain was assisted by Stan Albeck, who would go on to coach the Spurs from 1980-83.

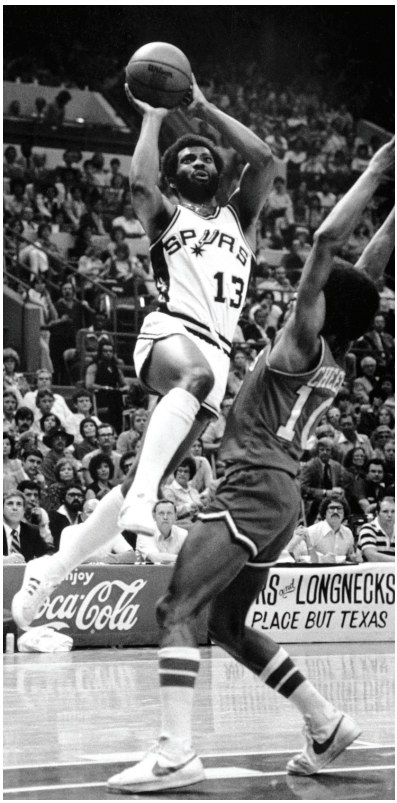
THE ICEMAN COMETH
January 30, 1974

It wasn't easy but it was worth it … the official date is January 30, 1974 … that's when George Gervin was obtained by San Antonio as Virginia sold his rights to the Spurs … but after the trade it took a few weeks before "Iceman" was free and clear to become a Spur … the Squires were in financial trouble and had been unloading players (including Julius Erving and Swen Nater) … so then the ABA – and eventually Virginia – contested the Gervin deal … first Gervin had to hide out in a San Antonio hotel room for about a week … then on February 7 he finally made his Spurs debut (finishing with 12 points in 27 minutes vs. Utah) but only after U.S District Court Judge Adrian Spears granted the Spurs a 10-day restraining order against the Squires and the ABA clearing Gervin to suit up for the Silver and Black … finally by the middle of February all the legal issues were dealt with and Gervin was a Spur … Gervin spent 12 of his 14 professional seasons with the Spurs and on February 5, 1996, was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame.

THE MERGER
June 17, 1976

Thanks to the leadership of Angelo Drossos the Spurs were one of four ABA teams – along with the Denver Nuggets, the Indiana Pacers and the New York Nets – to jump to the NBA as part of a merger between the two leagues … it was a long struggle for Drossos and the Spurs … in January of 1976 he was named to an ABA committee pursuing the merger … then, when the merger occurred, Drossos was forced to find 30 new investors to cover the $5 million NBA entry fee.

NEWS AND NOTES



- The Dallas Chaparrals always hovered near the middle of the ABA pack … around the league, the Chaps were known for the vast wealth of their ownership group … while the Dallas owners had money, they refused to spend it on their basketball team … the Chaps rarely, if ever, signed any of their high draft picks … in fact, the best draft "find" in Dallas franchise history, Ron Boone, was a relatively unknown eighth round pick.

- In the ABA's inaugural season, the Chaps had the fourth best record in the league and finished second in the Western Division … they crushed the Houston Mavericks in the first round of the playoffs, but then easily succumbed to the New Orleans Buccaneers in the Western Division Finals … the chief reason for the team's early success was player-coach Cliff Hagan, the former NBA All-Star with the St. Louis Hawks … Hagan's physical style was perfect for the early ABA, and he averaged 18.2 points per game that first year.

- Things started to change by Dallas' third season though … the team struggled early on as enforcer Cincy Powell suffered both a broken jaw and a sprained ankle … Hagan's coaching style also began to grate on his players and team management … some Dallas players hated playing for Hagan because he was a "screamer" … Chaps management felt that what the team needed was more encouragement, rather than constant yelling and screaming … Hagan was fired in January 1970, and General Manager Max Williams took over the team … the team improved a little after Williams took over (it averaged an impressive 128 points per game), and finished in second place behind Denver … Glen Combs probably was the team's MVP, averaging 22.2 points per game … in the playoffs however, Dallas was upset in the first round by the surprising Los Angeles Stars.

- For the 1970-71 season, the team lacked direction and confidence -- team leader John Beasley had been traded … rookies Rich Jones and Joe Hamilton showed promise, but could not carry the team … most of the season, Texas engaged in a nip and tuck battle with Denver for the last playoff spot in the Western Division … General Manager Max Williams watched his team struggle in last place early in the season before he finally decided to fire himself … he gave up the coaching position to Bill Blakeley, who promptly lost two games in a row for the first time in his 13 year head coaching career … in the middle of the season, the team made a trade which it would live to regret -- it sent Ron Boone and Glen Combs to Utah for a disgruntled Donnie Freeman and a banged-up Wayne Hightower … observers first thought that Texas got the better deal--but soon changed their minds as Boone and Combs became important elements of Utah's 1971 championship team … in fact, after Texas nipped the Denver Rockets in a one-game playoff for the final playoff spot in the Western Division, Boone and Combs led Utah past Texas in four straight games.

- For the next season, the team "returned" to Dallas and played all of its games there … their new young coach was Tom Nissalke, the former assistant coach of the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks … Nissalke got the most out of his players (including the talented Rich Jones and Joe Hamilton) and managed to guide the team to a .500 record and third place in the Western Division … for his efforts, Nissalke won the ABA Coach of the Year award … however, Dallas was once again swept by Utah in four straight games in the first round of the playoffs.

- Strangely, the team declined to hang on to Nissalke … Nissalke promptly found a new head coaching job with the Seattle Supersonics of the NBA … the Chaps' latest coach was Babe "Magnolia Mouth" McCarthy … unfortunately, the team floundered under McCarthy, and the respected coach was fired … the Chaps finished with only 28 wins, two games behind the ABA's new expansion team, the San Diego Conquistadors … for the first time in their existence, the franchise failed to make the playoffs … it was also the last season for the team in Dallas, as the owners decided to lease the team to Angelo Drossos in San Antonio for the 1973-74 season … the team became the San Antonio Spurs, and eventually stayed in that city under the ownership of Drossos.

- In an attempt to get the team back to their winning ways, they brought back Head Coach Tom Nissalke for the 1974-75 season … However, midway through the season, Bob Bass replaced Nissalke when he was named head coach on December 13, 1974 … Bass was credited with instilling a run-and-gun style to the Spurs attack … he also moved George Gervin from forward to guard … Bass would go on to have an illustrious career in San Antonio, serving in a variety of roles: general manager, vice president of basketball operations, assistant to the chairman, head coach and assistant coach during his 20 years with the Spurs … During his 1,617 games in San Antonio, the Spurs posted a 877-740 record … Bass was twice named NBA Executive of the Year (in 1990 with the Spurs and in 1997 with the Charlotte Hornets).

- San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game … a crowd of 10,449 packed the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on Jan. 28, 1975 … the Western squad featured three Spurs – George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas … Willie Nelson sang the National Anthem and Freddie Lewis was the MVP of the game (as MVP he was awarded a horse – Tuff Julie – and a hand-sewn saddle … but rather then try to ship the horse to his home in Arizona he instead took the auction price of $1,950).

- Fans in the Alamo City saw one of the more interesting, albeit one of the last games in ABA history on April 7, 1976 … a leak in the roof at the HemisFair Arena forced the Spurs-Indiana Pacers game to be played under some different rules … because a portion of the court was coned off in the slippery area it was decided there would be no pressing of the ball handler outside of the 3-point lines and there would be no fast break allowed … the game was also played with a running clock on dead balls to make up for the nearly 40-minute delay to get the court "game-ready" … the Spurs ended up winning the game 96-75 … arena officials weren't out of the woods after the game either … with the Spurs set to host the New York Nets in the ABA playoffs two days later, contractors were able to patch the leaks in HemisFair's roof , however they could not guarantee the patches in the event of another rain storm … luckily for everyone involved the weather cooperated and no new "rules" were needed in the playoffs.

1974–75 SEASON NOTES

- The City of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game … a crowd of 10,449 was on hand in the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on 1/28/75 … the Western squad featured three Spurs – George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas.
- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their head coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star … during the regular season he was seventh in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks … Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game … but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the postseason when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard … Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119 … Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

1975–76 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season … on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon … in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash … then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz … the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975–76 campaign.

- James Silas – the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season – broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets … the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas … he was the first Spur ever named to the All-ABA First Team … he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game … the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1,905-2,337) from the free throw line during the 1975–76 season … five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line … James Silas led the way with a .872 mark, George Gervin shot .862, Allan Bristow had a .848 mark, Coby Dietrick was .829 and Mike Gale shot an even .800.

1977–78 SEASON NOTES

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle) … after starting 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason to claim their first NBA Division Title … at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22-game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans … going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title … Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points … but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title … by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points – thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter … the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

- The Spurs beat the Cavaliers 117-101 on the final game of the season to edge out Houston to claim their second consecutive Central Division Title.
- George Gervin led the NBA in scoring for the second straight season, becoming the first guard ever to capture the NBA Scoring Title in back-to-back seasons.
- After beating the Sixers in the Eastern Conference Semifinals, the Spurs and Bullets matched-up in a memorable seven-game series in the Conference Finals … the Spurs jumped out to a 3-1 series lead … but Washington then won three straight games to claim the series 4-3.

1979–80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee … the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle … but Moore – who appeared in 519 regular season games with the Silver and Black – was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980–81 season.

- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark … on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as head coach.

- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.

- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs … he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest … on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73–74 through '92–93 … and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

1980–81 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference.
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season … draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs … after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was re-signed and led the team in assists in his first NBA season … and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson.
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game … he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State … in the Spurs 131-126 win Johnson set a pair of Spurs franchise records – the most blocks in a game, with 13, and the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second.

1981–82 SEASON NOTES

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas – the last original Spur and team captain – to Cleveland … Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and is one of just six players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena … the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league … George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg … George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.12 bpg … and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.6 assists per contest.

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named head coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season … first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie … guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84 … then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight … Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash … Marc Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice … and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg … this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring … Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season … Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix.
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg … Moore turned in one of the best games of his career vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .513 percent from the field during the 1984–85 season.

1985–86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever … the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short … after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985–86 season … the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest … he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg … he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987–88 SEASON NOTES

- The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court … on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy … on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 Draft.

- Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and – before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy – the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.

- The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

1989–90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989–90 season … on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson … in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice … and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp … in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents … of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment … in all, nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set what was an NBA record at the time for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88–89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season.

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21 … on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990–91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season, the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 NBA Draft.
- David Robinson was the top vote-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game … Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed, the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history on 2/26 with a 102-101 overtime win over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1992–93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4 … the Tarkanian era didn't last long … on 12/18 – with the team posting a 9-11 record – Tark was fired … 24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas … the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.

- The Spurs also made some changes on the court … point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice … other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.

- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.

- The Spurs closed a part of their history book on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals … the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973.

1993–94 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season … Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively … Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 vs. Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basketball history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang … in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign, he scored a Spurs franchise record 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24 … Robinson became just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season … thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title … Robinson also made history earlier in the season when he became just the fourth player ever to record a quadruple-double … Robinson posted his vs. Detroit on 2/17, finishing with 34 points, 10 rebounds, 10 blocks and 10 assists.

1995–96 SEASON NOTES

- The 1996 All-Star Game was held in San Antonio … the East beat the West 129-118 in front of 36,037 in the Dome … Michael Jordan – in his first All-Star Game since 1993 – was the MVP, finishing with 20 points in 22 minutes … for the Western squad David Robinson had 18 points and 11 rebounds in 23 minutes and Sean Elliott finished with 13 points in 22 minutes.

- The Spurs finished the month of March with a perfect 16-0 record, matching the '71–72 Lakers for the best month ever recorded in NBA history … the Spurs perfect month was part of a franchise-record 17 game winning streak which went from 2/29–4/2.

- Avery Johnson and Vinny Del Negro finished with the best assist-to-turnover ratio among any starting backcourt in the NBA … AJ and Vinny combined for a 3.74-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio … Johnson's personal assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.05-to-1 was the best among any starter in the league.

- David Robinson and Chuck Person both hit a pair of major milestones during the season … on 3/14 vs. the Heat, Person connected on the 1,000th three-pointer of his career, becoming just the fourth player in history to hit the 1,000 mark … then, on 4/15 at Portland, Robinson became just the 10th player in NBA history to record 2,000 career blocks.

1997–98 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs set an NBA record for the largest single season turnaround, posting a 56-26 mark - a 36 game improvement over their 20-62 record during the 1996-97 season … the Spurs broke the old NBA record for a single season turnaround of 35 games, a mark set by the Spurs during the 1989–90 season.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed an impressive rookie season, averaging 21.1 points, 11.9 rebounds and 2.51 blocks per game … he was the NBA Rookie of the Year, after being named the NBA Rookie of the Month all six months … in addition, he earned a spot on the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- After appearing in just six games during the 1996-97 season due to injuries, David Robinson returned to All-Star form during the 1997–98 campaign … he appeared in 73 games, averaging 21.6 points, 10.6 rebounds and 2.63 blocks per contest … Robinson joined Tim Duncan as a member of the 1998 NBA All-Star team … in addition, he was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- Tim Duncan and David Robinson became just the eighth set of teammates in NBA history to both average 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds … since 1970 the feat has been accomplished just four times … in addition to Duncan and Robinson, other 20-point, 10-rebound teammates since that time have been Ralph Sampson and Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston in '84–85), Charles Barkley and Moses Malone (Philadelphia in '85-86) and Alonzo Mourning and Larry Johnson (Charlotte in '92-93).

- The Spurs defeated the Knicks 4-1 in the 1999 Finals to claim the first NBA Championship in the team's 26-year history … the Spurs rolled through the playoffs with a 15-2 mark, the second highest winning percentage in NBA history … at one point the Spurs recorded 12 straight wins, setting an NBA record for the most consecutive victories in a single postseason … Tim Duncan was the Finals MVP, averaging 27.4 points and 14.0 rebounds in 45.8 minutes in the five-game series … the Spurs became the first former ABA team to advance to the NBA Finals and are just the ninth team in NBA history to win the title in their first appearance in the Finals … the Spurs clinched their title on June 25 in Madison Square Garden when Avery Johnson hit an 18-foot jumper from the corner with 47.0 seconds left … the basket gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead and was the final point scored in the game.

- After the NBA lifted its lockout in early January, the league played a shortened 50-game schedule … after starting the season with a 6-8 record, the Spurs were 31-5 (.861) over their final 36 games to finish with a 37-13 mark, the best record in the NBA … during their 31-5 run the Spurs were 17-1 in the Alamodome … in the middle of the run Tim Duncan was named the NBA Player of the Month in March and Gregg Popovich was named the NBA Coach of the Month in April.

- For the second consecutive season the Spurs set an NBA record for the lowest opponent field goal percentage … for the season opponents shot a mere .402 (1,631-4,061) from the floor vs. the Spurs … the Spurs broke their own record, which they set during the 1997-98 season, holding opponents to a .411 mark from the field.

- The Spurs started the season with a franchise best 14-3 mark … the team then struggled through an 11-12 stretch before finishing the season 28-14 … but, on 4/11 at Sacramento, Tim Duncan suffered a torn left lateral meniscus … the injury eventually required surgery and forced him to miss the remainder of the regular season and the playoffs … without Duncan, the Spurs fell to the Suns in four games in the First Round of the 2000 Playoffs in a series that saw Malik Rose and Jerome Kersey also go down with injuries.

- The biggest story of the season was Sean Elliott … Elliott underwent a kidney transplant on 8/16/99 … he spent the first half of the season as the Spurs television analyst … then on 2/1 he was cleared to return to practice and the next day joined his team on the court … after almost six weeks of practice, he was removed from the injured list on 3/14 … that night he made NBA history, becoming the first player to return to action after an organ transplant … Elliott was a surprise starter and finished with 2 points in 12 minutes vs. the Hawks in front of a crowd of 26,708.

- Avery Johnson became the Spurs all-time leader in assists on 12/7 at Indiana, passing Johnny Moore who handed out 3,865 assists in his nine seasons with San Antonio … Johnson finished the season with 4,237 assists with the Spurs.

- David Robinson also hit several milestones during the 1999–2000 season … on 12/18 at Denver, he played in his 710th game with the Spurs to pass George Gervin to become the team's all-time NBA leader in games played … then on 2/18 vs. Houston, he recorded seven steals to become the Spurs all-time leader in steals, passing Alvin Robertson … also during the season Robinson scored his 17,000th career point (vs. Washington on 12/11) and his 18,000th career point (vs. Sacramento on 4/5).

2000–01 SEASON NOTES

- For the fourth time in franchise history the Spurs compiled the NBA's best overall record during the regular season, posting a 58-24 mark … San Antonio also had the league's best record in 1994–95 (62-20) and 1995–96 (59-23) and shared the best record with Utah (at 37-13) in the lockout shortened 1998–99 season when the Spurs captured the 1999 NBA Championship.

- On 12/19, thanks to an 86-79 victory over Houston, Gregg Popovich passed Doug Moe to become the Spurs all-time leader in career victories … Moe posted a 176-135 record in his four seasons as the Spurs head coach.

- After signing with the Spurs as a free agent Derek Anderson made an immediate impact … he started all 82 games at the shooting guard position, averaging 15.5 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game … another free agent – Danny Ferry – also played a big role in his first season in San Antonio … Ferry appeared in 80 games and started 29 games at small forward … for the season he ranked fifth in the NBA in three-point field goal percentage, shooting .449 (70-156) from downtown.

- For the first time in franchise history the Spurs led the NBA in attendance during the 2000–01 season … the Spurs drew 913,175 fans for their 41 regular season home games for an average of 22,273 fans per contest.

- Tim Duncan averaged 25.5 points, 12.7 rebounds and 2.48 blocks while shooting .508 from the field and .799 from the line to become the second player in Spurs history to win the NBA's MVP Award (David Robinson was the first capturing the honor in 1994–95) … Duncan also was named to the All-NBA First Team, the All-Defensive First Team and captured the 2002 IBM Award … he led the NBA in double-doubles posting 67 in 82 games.

- The Spurs were red-hot after the All-Star break … following the break the Spurs were 27-7 (.794) which was the best mark in the NBA during that period … the Spurs 58-24 record was the second best in the NBA and the team captured the Midwest Division Title – the Spurs 12th division title since joining the NBA in 1976–77.

- In his first season with the Spurs guard Steve Smith made an immediate impact … he led the NBA in three-point field goal percentage hitting .472 (116-246) from downtown … for the season he appeared in 77 games – with 76 starts – and averaged 11.6 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists … he was also honored with the 2002 NBA Sportsmanship Award – becoming the third straight Spur to earn the honor (joining Avery Johnson and David Robinson).

- Tony Parker was named to the All-Rookie First Team becoming the first foreign-born guard to earn the honors … the 28th pick in the 2001 NBA Draft, Parker averaged 9.2 points, 4.3 assists, 2.6 rebounds and 1.16 steals … the only rookie on the Spurs 2001–02 roster he moved into the starting lineup in the fifth game of the season.

- For the second straight season the Spurs led the NBA in attendance … the Spurs drew a total of 906,390 fans for their 41 regular season home games for an average of 22,107 per game … the biggest crowd of the year was 35,052 when the Spurs hosted the Washington Wizards – and Michael Jordan – on 12/4.

- Tim Duncan became the first player since Michael Jordan to win back-to-back regular season MVP honors … ranked in the top 10 in points (seventh with 23.3), rebounds (third with 12.9), blocks (third with 2.93) and FG percentage (seventh with a .513 mark) … of course the regular season was just a warm-up for Duncan … in the postseason he averaged 24.7 points, 15.4 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 3.29 blocks in 42.5 minutes … Duncan led the Spurs to their second NBA Championship in a five-year span and was named the 2003 Finals MVP (after averaging 24.2 points, 17.0 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 5.33 blocks in the Finals).

- The Spurs Championship served as a perfect ending to a perfect career … prior to the 2002–03 season David Robinson announced it would be his last … his 14th and final season with the Spurs was a memorable one … he finished his NBA career with 20,790 points and 10,497 rebounds making him one of just 14 players in league history in the 20,000 point, 10,000 rebound club … a 10-time All-Star, Robinson was the 1995 NBA MVP, the 1992 NBA Defensive Player of the Year and the 1990 NBA Rookie of the Year … he led the league in scoring in 1994, in rebounding in 1991 and in blocked shots in 1992 to join Kareem Abdul-Jabbar as one of two players in NBA history to accomplish the feat.

- Rookie guard Manu Ginobili made an immediate impact and quickly became a fan favorite … the Argentina native – who the Spurs selected with the 57th pick in the 1999 NBA Draft – joined the team after spending the previous three seasons playing in the Italian League … he was named to the 2003 All-Rookie Second Team after averaging 7.6 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.0 assists during the 2002–03 campaign.

- The Spurs moved into a new home for the 2002–03 campaign … although the Spurs and their fans loved both the HemisFair Arena and the Alamodome, the AT&T Center was their first home conceived, designed and built with the Spurs in mind (unlike the HemisFair Arena – which was built for the 1968 World's Fair – and the Dome – which was built by the city of San Antonio as a multi-use sports and entertainment venue) … in their first season in the AT&T Center the Spurs sold out 21 games, averaging 17,950 fans per game in the 18,797-seat facility.

2003–04 SEASON NOTES

- Coming off the 2003 NBA championship, the Spurs suffered through a slow start, opening the 2003–04 season with a 9-10 record (which put the team in 25th place in the NBA on 12/4) … but the Spurs didn't panic … instead – on 12/5 – the team started a 13-game winning streak … the Spurs then finished the season with an 11-game winning streak … at the end of the regular season their 57-25 mark was the third best in the NBA (behind only Indiana and Minnesota).

- As usual the Spurs success was based on their efforts on the defensive end … during the 2003–04 campaign the Spurs held their opponents to 84.3 points per game with a .409 field goal percentage … both marks set new NBA single-season record opponent lows for a full 82-game schedule (during the 50 game 1998–99 season Spurs opponents shot just .402 from the field) … during the 2003-04 season the Spurs were 29-1 when holding their opponents to 80 points or less.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed another dominant season … for the seventh straight year he earned spots on both the All-NBA Team and the All-Defensive Team … he joined former teammate David Robinson as just the second player in history to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of their first seven seasons … Duncan ranked eighth in scoring (22.3 ppg), second in rebounds (12.4 rpg) and fourth in blocks (2.68 bpg).

- After sweeping Memphis in the first round the Spurs faced Los Angeles in the second round … it was the fourth straight year that the Spurs and the Lakers met in the playoffs … once again it was a classic series … with the series tied 2-2 the Lakers beat the Spurs 74-73 on 5/13 in a crazy Game 5 in the AT&T Center … the Lakers took a 72-71 lead with 11 seconds left thanks to a Kobe Bryant jumper … after a series of timeouts Tim Duncan hit an amazing shot – a 20-foot runner off the dribble with Shaquille O'Neal on him – with less than a second left … with 0.4 seconds left the Lakers inbounded the ball – across from the Spurs bench – and Derek Fisher caught, turned and launched a fade-away jumper that gave Los Angeles the win … two nights later the Lakers beat the Spurs in Game 6 to end San Antonio's bid to win back-to-back

- The Spurs captured their third NBA championship in a thrilling seven-game Finals victory over the Detroit Pistons … Tim Duncan was named Finals MVP for the third time in his career after averaging 20.6 points and 14.1 rebounds in 40.7 minutes in the seven games … but he had plenty of help … Manu Ginobili averaged 18.7 points, 5.9 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.29 steals … Bruce Bowen played his trademark defense (he was second on the team in minutes averaging 38.7 minutes per game in the Finals) … then there was Robert Horry who had one of the all-time great games in Finals history … in Game 5 at Detroit on 6/19 he finished with 21 points (scoring all of his points in the final 17:01 of the game) … his biggest shot of the night was a 25-foot three-pointer with 5.8 seconds left that gave the Spurs a 96–95 overtime win and a 3-2 series lead.

- Tim Duncan and Bruce Bowen were both named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team … it marked the first time that two teammates earned first team honors since the 1997–98 season when both Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen were named to the 1998 All-Defensive First Team.

- Manu Ginobili joined Tim Duncan at the 2005 All-Star Game in Denver … it was the 10th time in franchise history that two Spurs players were named All-Stars in the same season.

- The Spurs made NBA history in April becoming the first team to ever win back-to-back double-overtime games … the Spurs posted a 125-124 win at the Clippers on 4/9 before heading north and beating the Warriors 136-134 on 4/10 … making the feat even more impressive … the Spurs were without Tim Duncan and Devin Brown vs. the Clippers and then were forced to play without Duncan, Brown, Manu Ginobili and Rasho Nesterovic against the Warriors.

- The Spurs enjoyed their best home record in franchise history finishing with a 38-3 mark in the AT&T Center.

- The Spurs set the franchise record for most wins in a season finishing with a 63-19 mark … it was the third time that the Spurs hit the 60-win plateau … the 1994–95 team posted a 62-20 record while the 2002–03 Spurs squad went 60-22.

- Two-time All-Star Michael Finley signed with the Spurs on 9/2/05 after spending his previous nine seasons with the Dallas Mavericks … in his first season in San Antonio, Finley averaged 10.1 points in 26.5 minutes in 77 games.

- Tony Parker enjoyed a break-out season, averaging 18.9 points, 5.8 assists and 3.3 rebounds … he led the team in both scoring and assists … he is the first – and only – point guard to lead the Spurs in scoring … Parker snapped a string of seven straight seasons in which Tim Duncan had led the team in scoring … Parker ranked third in the NBA in FG percentage with a .548 mark from the field (becoming the first point guard to rank in the top-three in FG percentage since Butch Beard in the 1973–74 season) … Parker became the ninth Spur to appear in the NBA All-Star Game (finishing with 8 points in 20 minutes in the 2006 All-Star Game).

- Despite being hobbled all season with plantar fasciitis in his right foot Tim Duncan was named to both the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team … by earning the honors he extended his NBA record becoming the first player to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of his first nine seasons (David Robinson is second on the list being named to both teams in each of his first seven seasons).

2006–07 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs captured their fourth NBA Championship in a nine-year span sweeping the Cavaliers in the 2007 Finals … Tony Parker became the first European-born player to earn NBA Finals MVP honors, averaging 24.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.3 assists in 37.8 minutes in the four-game series.

- By winning the 2007 NBA Championship the Spurs became just the fifth franchise to claim four-or-more titles … the Celtics lead the way with 17 NBA Championships, followed by the Lakers with 14, the Bulls with six and the Sixers with four.

- The Spurs ended the 2006–07 season on a roll, finishing with a 25-6 mark in the final 31 games of the season … the team enjoyed a 13-game winning streak from 2/13 to 3/13 (matching the third longest winning streak in franchise history).

- Tim Duncan and Michael Finley both joined the NBA's 15,000 point club during the 2006–07 campaign … Duncan became the 99th player in NBA history to hit the 15,000 point mark at Seattle on 11/26 … Finley joined the exclusive club at Minnesota on 1/8.

- Tim Duncan was named to both the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive First Team … by earning the honors he extended his NBA record becoming the first player to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of his first 10 seasons (David Robinson is second on the list being named to both teams in each of his first seven seasons).

- The Spurs celebrated their rich history during the 2007–08 season as the team played its 35th season in San Antonio … the Spurs played their first ABA regular season game against the San Diego Conquistadors at the HemisFair Arena on 10/10/73 … after spending their first three years in the ABA the Spurs joined the NBA in the summer of 1976 when the two leagues merged … during their 32 NBA seasons the Spurs have made winning a habit posting the second-highest overall winning percentage in NBA history.

- Bruce Bowen hit a milestone on 3/12/08 at New Orleans, playing and starting in his 500th consecutive game … the streak ended when Bowen missed the 3/14 contest at Detroit due to an NBA suspension … Bowen is by far the Silver and Black's franchise leader for consecutive games played and started … his streak lasted for seven seasons and the Spurs have won three NBA championships since his first missed game on 2/26/02 vs. Phoenix.

- Bruce Bowen and Tim Duncan were both selected to the 2008 NBA All-Defensive First Team … it marked the third time that both Bowen and Duncan were named to the All-Defensive First Team (2005, 2007 and 2008) … since the All-Defensive Teams were introduced in 1968-69 they are just the fourth set of teammates to be named to three-or-more first teams in the same season.

- With a 99-84 victory vs. Minnesota on 3/28/08 the Spurs hit the 50 win mark for the ninth straight season … the Spurs joined the Lakers and the Celtics as the only teams in NBA history to accomplish the feat of winning 50-plus games in nine-or-more consecutive seasons.

- Manu Ginobili became the first Spurs player to win the NBA's Sixth Man of the Year award … a sixth man in 51-of-74 games played this season, Ginobili led the Spurs in scoring with a career-high average of 19.5 points to go along with 4.8 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 1.47 steals … he was also the only player in the NBA to average at least 17 points in under 32.0 minutes per game … Ginobili is first Sixth Man Award winner to lead his team in scoring since Ricky Pierce averaged 23.0 points for the Milwaukee Bucks during the 1989–90 season.

2008–09 SEASON NOTES

- With a 99-89 victory at Oklahoma City on 4/7/09, the Spurs became just the third team in NBA history to record 50-plus wins in 10 straight seasons … Boston and the Los Angeles Lakers are the only other franchises to record such a streak.
- On 3/16/09 at Oklahoma City, Gregg Popovich became just the 24th head coach in NBA history to have coached in 1,000 games … he is the third winningest coach at the 1,000 game mark after only Phil Jackson and Pat Riley.
- Tony Parker became the first player in Spurs history to record back-to-back 30+ points and 10+ assists games when he did it in back-to-back games vs. Golden State and at Atlanta … he recorded 30 points and 10 assists vs. Golden State on 3/24 and posted 42 points and 10 assists at Atlanta on 3/25.
- Tony Parker finished with 55 points at Minnesota on 11/5/08 adding his name to the Spurs record books … Parker tied George Gervin for third place among all-time single game scoring totals while surpassing Terry Cummings (52) and Larry Kenon (51) … he became just the sixth Spur to score 50-or-more in a game … it was the first 50-plus point game for the Silver and Black since Tim Duncan had 53 points on 12/26/01 at home vs. Dallas.
- Tim Duncan was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team … he became the only player in NBA history to earn both All-NBA and All-Defensive honors in each of his first 12 seasons.

2010-11 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs finished the season 61-21, which is the third-best record in franchise history. It trails the 2005-06 team, who finished a franchise-best 63-19, and the 1994-95 Spurs, who finished 62-20. The Spurs reached 20, 30, 40 and 50 wins faster than any previous team in franchise history.
- The Spurs won 22 games in a row at home from Dec. 3 vs. Minnesota through March 6 vs. L.A. Lakers. The streak marked the longest single-season home winning streak in franchise history, breaking the previous record of 20 games in the 1989-90 season from Nov. 11 to Feb. 6.
- The Spurs shot .397 from three-point range, which ranked first in the NBA and was the second-best percentage in franchise history. Matt Bonner led the NBA in three-point field goal percentage (.440, 135-307), Richard Jefferson finished the season ranked tied for fourth (.457, 105-230), and Gary Neal led all rookies in three-point shooting (.419, 419-308). Each shot over .400 from three-point territory with at least 150 attempts. This marked the third time in franchise history that the Spurs had three players in the same season shoot at least .400 from three-point range with at least 150 attempts
- With a victory over Sacramento on April 6, Head Coach Gregg Popovich surpassed Red Auerbach to move into second place on the all-time wins with one team list. Popovich's 797 career wins, all with San Antonio, place him on a list that includes Red Auerbach, Jerry Sloan and Red Holzman.

2011-12 SEASON NOTES

- With a 107-101 victory over the Golden State Warriors on April 26, the Spurs won their 50th game of the season for the 13th consecutive year (1999-00 to present) surpassing the L.A. Lakers (1979-80 to 1990-91) for the longest streak in NBA history. During that span the Spurs won three NBA championships and eight division titles.

- The Spurs finished the regular season 28-5 (.848) at the AT&T Center, which tied the Miami Heat for the best home record in the NBA season. Only the 2004-05 (38-3, .927) and the 2010-11 (36-5, .878) Spurs teams finished with a better home winning percentage since joining the NBA in 1976-77.

- With the win over Phoenix on 4/14, the Spurs clinched the Southwest Division title. Since joining the NBA in 1976-77 the Spurs have won 18 division titles, which ties the L.A. Lakers for the most division titles in that time period. Since Tim Duncan joined the Spurs in 1997, the Spurs have posted an NBA-best nine division titles.

- Manu Ginobili became just the fifth Spur to reach 10,000 points after scoring nine points vs. L.A. Lakers on 4/11. The Spurs "Big Three" are the only active trio to play on the same team and score over 10,000 points with the same franchise in the NBA and just the fourth threesome in NBA history each to record 10,000-or-more points while teammates. (Elias) Here's a closer look at the Spurs 10,000 point club and threesomes to records 10,000-or-more points as teammates:

2013-14 SEASON NOTES

• The Spurs finished with the best overall record in the NBA and clinched the number one overall seed for the 2014 NBA Playoffs en route to winning the 2014 NBA Championship. Kawhi Leonard became the third-youngest NBA Finals MVP in league history and San Antonio captured its fifth title in franchise history.

• The Silver and Black extended their NBA-record streak of 50-win seasons to 15. Additionally, the Spurs eclipsed the 55-win mark for the 17th time in franchise history, trailing only the Los Angeles Lakers (20) for such seasons in NBA history. Finally, the Spurs ascended past the 60-win mark for the fourth time since Tim Duncan joined the Spurs in 1997-98, most in the NBA over that span. With a 32-9 record in home games and an NBA-best and franchise-best 30-11 ledger in away games, the San Antonio Spurs were the only team in the NBA to finish above .750 in both home and road games.

• San Antonio won 19 consecutive games (2/26 – 4/2), marking its longest win streak in franchise history and is tied for the fifth longest streak in NBA history. San Antonio joins only six other teams in NBA history to have a winning streak of 19 games or more. The 16.8 point differential average the Spurs posted during the streak was the second-highest point differential average of any streak 19 games or more in NBA history.

• The Spurs finished with an NBA-best 30-11 road record (five more than second most road wins), marking the best away ledger in franchise history and only the 13th time in NBA history a team has won 30 road games in a season.

• No player on the San Antonio Spurs roster averaged 30 minutes (Tony Parker 29.4 minutes = highest), marking the first time in league history no player on an NBA team averaged at least 30 minutes in a season. Additionally, the Spurs deployed 30 different lineups, second only to the Los Angeles Lakers, while featuring 17 different starters.

• San Antonio's reserves averaged an NBA-best 45.1 points per game, marking the Spurs' highest bench average in franchise history. Additionally, the 45.1 average is the fourth highest average in NBA history (NBA started tracking the stat in 1970-71), while also totaling the fourth-most points by a bench in a single season with 3,698. The Spurs bench also led the NBA in assists (11.1) and point differential (+3.8).

• The Silver and Black finished the season ranked first in assists (25.2) and in three-point field goal percentage (.397), second in field goal percentage (.486) and fourth in free throw percentage (.785).

2014-15 SEASON NOTES

• The Spurs finished the 2014-15 season with a 55-27 record, extending their NBA-record streak of 50-win seasons to 16. Additionally, the Spurs eclipsed the 55-win mark for the 18th time in franchise history, trailing only the Los Angeles Lakers (20) for the most 55-win seasons in NBA history.

• The trio of Tim Duncan, Tony Parker and Manu Ginobili set a new record for most career games played by a trio in NBA history, playing their 730th contest together at Oklahoma City on 4/7/15 and passing the Boston Celtics group of Larry Bird, Robert Parish and Kevin McHale. The Spurs "Big Three" have been teammates since the 2002-03 season and have played in 734 total games together, while their 539 career wins together stands as second-most in league history.

• Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich became the ninth coach in NBA history to record 1,000 career wins. Popovich is now the second coach all-time to record 1,000 wins with one franchise (Jerry Sloan), and the third-fastest coach to 1,000 victories (Phil Jackson, Pat Riley). Popovich also became the fifth coach in history to record 1,000 wins and an NBA Championship, and the third to capture 1,000 wins and five titles.

• The Spurs finished the regular season by winning 21 of the final 24 games overall, as well as winning 21 of their final 23 home games. The Silver and Black went on a season-high 11-game winning streak before dropping their final game at New Orleans on 4/15. San Antonio finished 18-4 after returning from their annual 'Rodeo Road Trip' that included nine-straight road games (2/8 to 2/28) with 8,084 total miles of travel.

• The Silver and Black were one of only two teams in the NBA that ranked in the Top 10 in the league in both offensive and defensive points-per-game (Atlanta). San Antonio ranked seventh in points-per-game (103.2), while they were third in opposing point-per-game (97.0). The Spurs held their opponents under 100 PPG for an NBA-record 20th straight season.

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

• With a final record of 67-15, the Spurs produced their most wins in a season, passing the 2005-06 Spurs who finished 63-19. San Antonio became just the 12th team in NBA history to win 67+ games in a season and tied for the seventh best season ever. The Silver and Black finished with the second best overall record in the NBA, a franchise-best 40-1 at home and registered victories in 64 of their final 77 games.

• The Spurs set an NBA record by becoming the first team in league history to start a season 38-0 at home, beating New Orleans on 3/30. The Silver and Black reached 39 straight wins to start and finished 40-1 tying the 1985-86 Boston Celtics for most home wins in a single-season in NBA history. Overall, San Antonio won a franchise-best 48 straight regular season games at home dating back to last season. The 48-game win streak ranks San Antonio second on the all-time longest home winning streaks in NBA history. The Spurs trailed for only 23 minutes and 13 seconds in 492 minutes played in fourth quarters at home this season.

• The Spurs finished the regular season with the league's top net efficiency rating this season (11.8). San Antonio's defense allowed a league-low 96.6 points per 100 possessions, while also finishing with the third-best offensive rating of 108.4 points scored per 100 possessions.

• The "Big Three" of Tim Duncan, Manu Ginobili and Tony Parker became the all-time winningest trio in NBA history when they recorded their 541st victory together with the Spurs' 95-87 win against the Boston Celtics on 11/1/15. The trio set a new record for most games played by a trio in NBA history by playing their 730th career game together at Oklahoma City on 4/7/15. The Spurs "Big Three" were teammates from 2002-16.

• Tim Duncan became just the third player in NBA history to record 1,000 regular season wins when the Spurs defeated Utah on 4/5/16 in Salt Lake City. Duncan joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Robert Parish as the only players on the list. Earning his 1,000th win in his 1,389th contest made Duncan the fastest player ever in NBA history to win 1,000 games. Duncan also passed John Stockton as the NBA leader in most wins with one team when the Spurs defeated the New York Knicks 94-84 at Madison Square Garden on 11/2/15. The win marked No. 954 for Duncan with the Silver and Black.

2016-17 SEASON NOTES

• Finishing with a final record of 61-21, the Spurs won 60+ games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history. The 61 wins were the fourth-most ever recorded by the Silver & Black in a single season. Gregg Popovich became one of just three all-time NBA coaches with at least six 60-win seasons.

• On 2/13/17 in Indiana, the Spurs clinched their 42nd win of the 2016-17 season to secure their 20th winning season in a row, eclipsing the NBA record held by the Utah Jazz after their 19-year run from 1985-2004.

• San Antonio earned a 30-11 road record in 2016-17, tying the most victories the Spurs have ever recorded on the road in a single season in franchise history. The 30 wins equaled the fifth-best road mark in NBA league history.

• The Spurs had a knack for coming back throughout the 2016-17 campaign, posting a 22-12 record when trailing at the half. The 22 come-from-behind wins at the break marked the second-most recorded in NBA history for a single season, falling one shy of the 1983-84 Philadelphia 76ers, who had 23 such victories.

• Gregg Popovich captured career win number 1,128 in a victory over the Denver Nuggets on 2/4/17, surpassing former Utah Jazz head coach Jerry Sloan for the most wins with a single franchise in NBA history. Earlier in the season on 11/21/16, Popovich won his 1,100th career game, becoming the second-fastest coach in league history to reach the milestone behind Phil Jackson. Popovich finished the season with 1,150 wins.

• On the final night of the NBA season, forward-center Pau Gasol picked up his 20,000th career point to join Dirk Nowitzki as the only European players to reach 20,000 career points. Gasol is one of only four players in NBA history to reach 20,000 points, 10,000 rebounds, 3,500 assists and 1,500 blocks during his career along with Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Kevin Garnett and Tim Duncan.

2017-18 SEASON NOTES

• San Antonio tied with Utah to lead the league in fewest opponent points allowed per game. On average, the Silver and Black held their opponents to 99.8 points per game and held over half of their opponents to under 100 points (42 of 82). The Spurs made it 23-straight seasons allowing fewer than 100.0 points, which is the longest run in NBA history.

• With San Antonio's 100-91 win over the New York Knicks on 1/2/18, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich collected his 1,176th win to pass George Karl for fifth place on the NBA all-time wins list. He holds the most wins among all active NBA coaches.

• Tony Parker and Gregg Popovich amassed the second most wins together in NBA history (862), trailing only the 1,001 wins that Popovich recorded with Tim Duncan. Tony Parker and Manu Ginobili finished out their 16 NBA seasons as teammates with the third-most wins together, 679, of all player duos in NBA history. Parker collected 733 wins with Tim Duncan, which ranks second all time behind John Stockton and Karl Malone, who totaled 906 for the Utah Jazz.

• The Spurs win vs. Charlotte on 11/3/17 marked Manu Ginobili's 1,000th career game and 728th career win, making him the winningest player through 1,000 games in NBA history. He also became the first player from South America to play 1,000 NBA games, the second 2nd round draft pick to play 1,000 NBA games with one team, the 10th player to ever play 1,000 games and 200 playoff games, and the third player to play 1,000 games with the Spurs, along with Tim Duncan and Tony Parker.

• LaMarcus Aldridge led the Spurs in scoring 59 times during in 2017-18. He is just the fifth Spur in franchise history to lead the team in scoring at least 50 times in a single season along with Kawhi Leonard, Tim Duncan, David Robinson and George Gervin. He scored in double figures in 73-of-75 games in which he saw the court. Aldridge has scored in double figures in 783 games in his career. There are only three players with more double-digit scoring games since Aldridge entered the NBA in 2006: LeBron James, Dirk Nowitzki, Carmelo Anthony. He finished with the same amount of 20+ point games during the 2017-18 season (in 73 games) that he had from 2015-17 (in 146 games).

2018-19 SEASON NOTES

• San Antonio clinched a playoff berth for the 22nd consecutive season, tying the record for most consecutive playoff appearances in NBA history (Syracuse Nationals/Philadelphia 76ers 1950-71). The Spurs have now gone to the Playoffs 39 times in the 43 seasons they have been in the NBA since 1976, the most a team has been in the Playoffs in that time span. The Spurs own the longest active streak of playoff appearances across all four major U.S. sports. Gregg Popovich now has the record for longest streak of postseason appearances by a head coach in NBA history.

• The Spurs win over the Hawks on 4/2/19 marked San Antonio's 45th win of the season, marking the 20th straight season the Silver and Black have had 45+ wins, the longest streak in NBA history.

• Gregg Popovich finished the season with 1,415 total wins (regular season + playoffs) at the end of his 23rd season as head coach of the San Antonio Spurs, making him the winningest coach in NBA history. The Spurs captured a 154-147 win in a double-overtime thriller on 1/10/19 while Gregg Popovich surpassed Jerry Sloan for third place on the NBA's all-time coaching wins list (regular season only).

• In just his first season in San Antonio, DeMar DeRozan became the first player in Spurs franchise history to post season averages of 20.0+ points, 5.0+ rebounds and 5.0+ assists. He recorded season averages of 21.2 points, 6.2 assists and 6.0 boards, leaving him as one of just four players to average 21+ points, 6+ assists and 6+ rebounds during the 2018-19 season (James Harden, LeBron James, Russell Westbrook).

• As a team, San Antonio ranked No. 1 in the NBA in 2018-19 for free-throw percentage (.819), three-point percentage (.392) and fewest turnovers per game (12.1), while finishing second in field-goal percentage (.478) behind the Golden State Warriors. The 81.9 percent mark from the charity stripe marked the best single-season team free-throw percentage in franchise history.

2019-20 SEASON NOTES

• The 2019-2020 NBA season was paused on March 11 and resumed July 30 at the Walt Disney World Resort in Lake Buena Vista, Fla. in what was referred to as the NBA Bubble. The Spurs had 19 regular season games remaining when the hiatus began The Spurs first regular season game on July 31 marked 142 days since their previous contest. San Antonio went 5-3 during their final eight regular season games but missed the Play-In Tournament by one game (Grizzlies 34-39, Spurs 32-39).

• San Antonio's streak of consecutive playoff seasons came to an end, but the Spurs tied the record for the most consecutive playoff appearances in NBA history with 22 straight years from 1998-2019. The Spurs went to the playoffs 39 times in the 44 seasons they have been in the NBA since 1976, the most a team has gone to the playoffs in that time span. Head Coach Gregg Popovich owns the record for longest streak of postseason appearances by a head coach in NBA history (22).

• On Dec. 3, 2019, San Antonio's matchup against Houston marked the 3,500th game played in Spurs NBA history since the team joined the league in 1976. San Antonio has a .618 (2194-1355) historical winning percentage for the best record in NBA history followed by the Los Angeles Lakers in second (.595). The Spurs sustained success is supported by an all-time winning record against every team in the NBA.

• Seven different Spurs recorded 700 points during the 2019-20 season, marking only the second time in San Antonio history that seven players scored at least 700 points (2013-14) and is the first time in franchise history that seven players averaged at least 10.0 points: DeMar DeRozan (1,504), LaMarcus Aldridge (1,001), Patty Mills (767), Derrick White (765), Rudy Gay (726), Dejounte Murray (720), Bryn Forbes (707)

• The Spurs recorded single-season franchise highs with 10.7 three-pointers and 28.5 attempts per game. The Spurs led the NBA in fewest turnovers per game (12.6) and turned the ball over 10-or-fewer times in 23 games, the fourth-most such games in the league. The Spurs .810 free throw percentage is the fourth-best single-season mark in franchise history and ranked second in the league.
